organization, but for making new and supporting organizations behind the present line.

Under the law the Governor may call all of the men of milith age in the State under a compulsory service law that is as strong as that of Germany. It lacks, however, the details of execution, and it is upon these details that the officers of the Guard are working. For instance, there is now no division of the militia population into workable classes, taking the men of a stated age for each class. Nor is there a practical system for calling up the classes for service. The matter of exemptions also calls for earnest attention, and it is being given to this vitally im-

WHAT more appropriate selections for the month of St. Patrick than the four fine Irish selections, including Charles Harrison singing "Macushla" and "Mother Machree". In addition, there are fourteen popular hits, led by Al Jolson singing his latest, and ten dance-recordings of a brilliance that gives them a high place in this list of real hits.

And Here Is a Group of Great Artistic Triumphs

Lazaro sings Faust's wonderful serenade, "Salve! dimora casta e pura" with a supreme artistry never yet approached. Ardent devotion throbs in his great voice and reaches a climax so powerful, yet so sweet, that it compels a tribute of awed admiration. Kathleen Parlow plays Beethoven's "Minuet is G, No. 2" and the "Valse Bluette" with a touch that brings out exquisite beauties of violin tone with each sweep of her bow across the strings.

Entertainment of Wide Variety

Besides, Oscar Seagle sings a negro "spiritual" and an old-time gospel hymn, Morgan Kingston renders two concert triumphs, Campanari records the greatest arias of his brilliant operatic career, and Harred and Marr sing the 'Pearl Fishers' duet from the sensation of the Metropolitan season. A great operatic chorus, orchestral gems, old-time fiddling and plantation songs. Scotch, Hawaiian and other novelties complete a list that can truly be called a "Jist of hits" from the start to the finish! Enjoy it at your dealer's today.
